Move Forward With Confidence

If you have questions about dividing property, determining the future value of retirement and pension funds, calculating alimony, or anything else related to the long-term financial effects of your divorce, Divorce Financial Analysis might be for you.

In just a few meetings, we can work with you and with your counsel, if you have engaged one, or we can work with those who are not represented by counsel as well to strategize settlement options that get it right the first time—providing you clarity when it comes to your financial future and avoiding costly post decree modifications.

About Divorce Resource Centre of Colorado

We're a team of seasoned Certified Divorce Financial Analysts (CDFA) who provide a cost-effective, respectful mediation process that allows couples and families to rebuild a secure post-divorce future. We serve our clients, both locally and nationwide, with a dedication to thoughtful financial analysis, meaningful parenting plans, and informed decision making.

CASH FLOW
ANALYSIS

During our first session, we'll gain clarity around your financial goals and disclosures.

Points we'll explore:

- Create Forward-Focused Spending Needs
- Determine Income to Calculate Support
- Modeling Maintenance (Alimony)
- Property Division Ideation
- Valuation of Pensions & Other Retirement Needs

MILESTONE #2:
MODELING
PROPERTY
DIVISION

Once we have a clear picture of assets and debts, we can begin ensuring your property is divided fairly and in a way that avoids tax traps. You'll avoid expensive post decree modifications by getting it right the first time.

You'll walk away with an understanding of:

- Property Division Scenarios With Tax & Financial Impact
- Equitable Division of Property
- Settlement Scenarios & Corresponding Cash Flow Scenarios
- A forecast showing the sustainability of a property division

MILESTONE #3: STRATEGIZE THE PROPOSAL

We'll apply our financial expertise to create and/or analyze a proposal that takes multiple scenarios into consideration, to ensure it serves you for the long term. Then, we'll share with counsel what the best property division is for you, in our opinion.

Items we'll finalize include:

- Property Division Proposal
- Forward-looking Budget
- Cash Flow Analysis
- Cash Flow Forecast

Get Started With Us Today
