

The Roadmap to Resolution

An 8-12 Week Divorce Mediation Solution

Mediation is for you if you would prefer to avoid the adversarial process of divorcing through the Court system. It's a chance to engage with neutral mediators, experience healthy conflict, and be allowed equal space as you heal and rebuild.

We've designed this process to take place over a course of four to five two-hour meetings, occurring every two weeks, to ensure that you have the time you need to digest information and make intentional decisions.

About Divorce Resource Centre of Colorado

We're a team of seasoned Certified Divorce Financial Analysts (CDFA) who provide a cost-effective, respectful mediation process that allows couples and families to rebuild a secure post-divorce future. We serve our clients, both locally and nationwide, with a dedication to thoughtful financial analysis, meaningful parenting plans, and informed decision making.

MILESTONE #1:
CLARITY

To get started, we'll gain clarity around your current and future financial situations, your goals and guiding principles. We'll also create a picture of any parenting considerations to be made; and offer initial observations and possibilities for the outcome of your case, all while taking the time to ensure that you understand each part of the mediation roadmap.

MILESTONE #2:
GETTING ON THE SAME PAGE

Next, we'll uncover where you both stand as it relates to dividing one household into two, financially. And, it is important to learn where both parents stand on various parenting issues. You'll gather your thoughts using straightforward worksheets and have a chance to express your point of view on any issues of concern so that we can properly facilitate your discussions and agreement.

Points we'll explore as we take an inventory of your marital estate together:

- Assets & Debts
- Separate vs. Marital Property
- Investment & Retirement Accounts
- Personal Property
- Avoiding Tax Traps

MILESTONE #3:
FORWARD-
FOCUSED BUDGETS
& CASH FLOW
ANALYSIS

During this step, you'll create a realistic, forward-looking spending plan that you can implement and rely on as you rebuild financially post-divorce. We don't stop at the basics. As Certified Divorce Financial Analysts we'll help you plan for items you might not have thought of yet, as well as unexpected life events.

You'll walk away with an understanding of your:

- Income & Post-divorce Spending Plan
- Cash Flow and Post-Divorce Bottom Line
- Costs of Maintenance & Child Support
- Appropriate Tax Filing Status and Dependency Exemptions

MILESTONE #4:
PARENTING PLAN

We believe that while your marriage is over, your family is not, and that every care should be taken to ensure you all enjoy healthier lives and relationships post-divorce. We'll help you create a parenting plan (not an order) that genuinely addresses your children's needs and family's best interest.

Considerations we'll help you plan for:

Decision Making
Parenting Time & Division of Labor
Holiday Schedules
Shared Expenses, Cash Flow, & Schedules
Child Support (& Costs Not Covered By Child Support)

MILESTONE #5:
NEGOTIATION &
AGREEMENT

This is where the rubber meets the road. With all the details about your income, property, budgets, and parenting factors in mind, we'll make sure you have what you need to have effective conversations with your counsel and other advisors and successfully finalize your divorce.

Items we'll complete:

Negotiations on Property Division, support, Tax Implications, Maintenance, & Child Support
Final Document Review (Decisions on Global Settlements)
Review of Memorandum of Understanding & Parenting Plan

MILESTONE #6:
MEDIATION
CONCLUSION

Rather than a future based solely on law or "win-lose" models, you'll be empowered with a plan for successful implementation of a post-divorce life—one that meets the unique needs of your family.

To ensure you'll succeed, we'll close with the following:
